Farmers play a critical role in climate change

They are the most vulnerable to the effects of climate change

They are also the stewards of our planet’s land
As we grow, we have existing experience with key climate change objectives, and are poised to scale

We help our farmers adapt to a changing environment...

- Largest insurer of smallholder farmers
- Strong compost trials
- Diverse menu of crop offerings and crop diversification training

...and mitigate their environmental footprint

- Monitoring soil health for long term sustainability
- At-scale tree planting (4m trees planted to date)
- Top five seller of solar lamps in Sub-Saharan Africa
Correct seed choice
